

JERSEY SKEETERS ARE WHITEWASHED

Chance's Men Play an Errorless Game—No Skeeter Reached Third Base.

Hamilton, Bermuda, March 11.—Showing a driving attack that is justly attributed to Chance's leadership, and playing an errorless game in the field, the Yanks "whitewashed" the Jersey Skeeters to-day, in the first game of the season, 9 to 0. The regular twirlers, Warhop, Ford and McConnell, divided the pitching burden for the New Yorkers, while Schulz and Hoff, of the second team, were loaned to the Jerseyites to bolster up their untrained line.

Young at short and Barry at first station, banged the ball into divers portions of the lot. Midkiff, at third, was the sensation of the fielding line. Nothing got by the chunky third baseman during the entire game. Both Hoff and Schulz played good ball for the minor leaguers, but the Yanks jumped on Vie Bahin, a Jersey slab artist, and scored seven runs during the two innings he occupied the box.

The veterans pitched air-tight ball, and not one of the Skeeters got as far as third.

White Sox Beat the Wolves.
Sacramento, Cal., March 11.—The Sacramento Wolves, so named in honor of Manager Harry Wolverton, didn't hit hard enough to worry the White Sox team No. 1 to-day, and were defeated 7 to 2. Six runs were scored by the Sox in the fifth. Walsh started for the big leaguers, and was nipped for one in the opening inning. He tightened in the second and third, and the coast leaguers quit scoring. Their other two counts were made off Bill Lange. In the seventh, a fumble by Wolverton and an infield hit by Shinn being followed by Kenworth's triple, Lange was apked in the eighth inning and gave way to Benz.

Recruits Win a Game.
Mobile, Ala., March 11.—Manager Tinker gave the Reds a warm workout this morning, and this afternoon a team of recruits, with one or two regulars in the lineup, played the Springfield College nine. The recruits won, 11 to 3.

The first game of the season between regulars and Yankigans will be staged to-morrow, and Works probably will pitch for the regulars.

In the fifth, with two down, Sheekard and Miller got to Humphreys for singles and Gooden sent a double to right, scoring both runs. Hubbach for the Yanigans allowed five hits and walked six.

FERRONA NOSES OUT A FAVORITE

Twenty-to-One Shot Gets Decision at Juarez—Meet to Close March 23.

Juarez, March 11.—There was no feature race this afternoon, and only the cheaper class of horses were entered in the several events. The running of the fifth race was attended by a big upset, when Ferrona, at odds of 20 to 1 and practically neglected in the betting, managed to stick her nose in front at the end, and got the decision over Angelus and Chilla. The winner made all her own pace, and just lasted long enough.

Manganese, a Texas colt, out ran his field in the Juvenile event, and beat Edith W., the hot favorite, by a slight margin.

Ben Wilson, Brando and High Street were the favorites to score. While on the way to the post in the closing race, Ben Wilson unseated his rider and ran away three miles. The field was dispatched without him.

Sunday, March 23, has been decided upon as the closing day of the meeting. Results:

First race—four furlongs—Manganese (8 to 1), won; Edith W. (3 to 5), second; First Cherry (out), third. Time, 48 3-5. Autumnal, Meritorious, Bing, Shadereach also ran.

COUNT DEFENDANT IN WILL CONTEST

Secretary to King of Belgium Will Arrive To-Day to Testify.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 11.—Count Guillaume D'Archot, secretary to the King of the Belgians, is defendant in a will contest that came to trial to-day before Surrogate Cohalan.

The contestants are four nieces of the Countess Gaston D'Archot, who died February 21, 1912, leaving the bulk of her $500,000 estate to Count D'Archot and Joseph D'Tours Lenthion, her nephews.

She bequeathed the contestants a few pictures and other mementoes. It is the contention of the contestants, including Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lenthion, of Ielp, N. Y.; Mrs. John P. Gilford, of Lakewood, N. J.; Mrs. Chesler Clark Boynton, of New York, and Mrs. J. N. Macomb, Jr., of Topeka, Kan., that Count D'Archot used undue influence to obtain the execution of the will in his favor. He visited her in New York before the will was drawn, and returned to his home just before she died.

Count D'Archot will arrive to-morrow from Belgium and immediately go to the Surrogate's Court to testify. During the hearing to-day, Johnston DeForrest, the attorney who drew the contested will, admitted that he received his instructions from the count. The will was drawn and taken incompletely to the home of the countess, where it was read to her, Attorney DeForrest said she was rational in her conversation, and expressed herself as satisfied with the will.

The contestants will testify to-morrow.

Executing "The Thief" at the Bijou.
The Bijou this week is the scene of the execution of "The Thief." Henri Bernstein's famous play, by six confederates under the direction of C. S. Primrose, none of whom, with the exception of the leading woman, is blessed with a given name, so far as the program shows.

Fortunately, M. Bernstein knows nothing of the details, and a more virile typewriter than mine is needed to describe them.

They are going to do the same thing every evening this week, besides Thursday and Saturday afternoons, and then the tortured malefactor will depart hence. W. D. G.

Philharmonic Orchestra.
The New York Philharmonic Orchestra comes to Richmond to-day for its last concert of the present season in this city. At the City Auditorium to-night Richmond music-lovers will have their last opportunity of hearing the superb orchestra and its wonderful leader, Josef Strinsky. ## TRIAL OF JACKSON BEGINS IN SUSSEX

He Is One of Negroes Charged With Murder of Andrew J. Dunn.

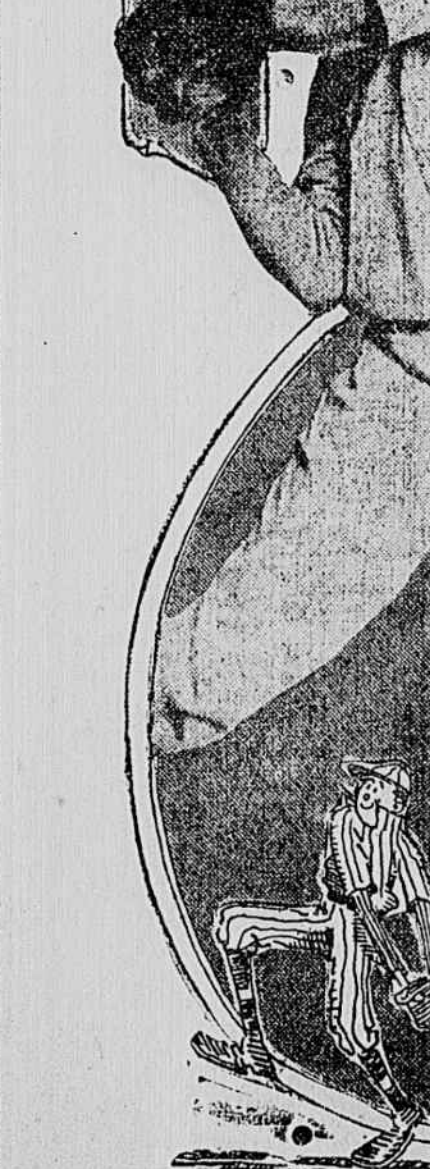

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Sussex Courthouse, Va., March 11.—Sussex Circuit Court, with Judge J. F. West presiding, convened to-day. The special grand jury returned true bills against Anderson Barkdale and Henry McCree for breaking and entering the storehouse of W. T. Freeman Company, of Stony Creek, and before 12 o'clock both were tried and convicted and sentenced to hard labor on the public roads of this State for five years each. The trial of Emanuel Jackson, one of the negroes charged with the murder of Andrew J. Dunn in October last, was begun, nearly two hours being consumed in securing a jury. The following were accepted by the court: W. M. Harrison, R. E. Tudor, W. S. Riggs, C. B. Harrell, C. R. Rainey, J. S. White, J. E. Bain, H. W. Poole, E. W. Hayes, J. T. Hancock, T. E. Poarch and W. H. Jackson. Great interest is being manifested in the trial, and crowds in attendance upon the court are very large. About twenty witnesses have been summoned. Every inch of ground is being hotly contested in the trial, which will probably consume all of Wednesday. The Commonwealth is represented by Commonwealth's Attorney W. B. Cooke, Thomas H. Howerton and W. T. Arnold, of Waverly. W. Stanley Burt, of Clarendon, is making an able fight for the prisoner.

Andrew J. Dunn was brutally murdered by some unknown person while out hunting about five miles from this place.

New York Results.
New York, March 11.—Fatey Kline and Young Driscoll fought ten slashing rounds to a draw before the Irving A. C., of Brooklyn, to-night. Both of the men were in good condition, and were fresh at the finish.

Harry Donohue, of Pekin, Ill., defeated Jimmy Jarvis in the final ten-round bout at Brown's Gymnasium to-night.

Collins, One of Mack's Greatest Assets

EDDIE COLLINS, the star second sacker of the Philadelphia Athletics, whom Manager Connie Mack declares will be one of his strongest aides in the campaign for the American League pennant, which the elongated manager declares will be won by his team. Collins is one of the classiest guardians of the half-way station in the game, and is admitted to be the keystone of the greatest infield in the game.

RESENTS ATTACK ON DEAD FATHER

Ralph Pulitzer Seeks to Bring Criminal Libel Suit Against Mayor Gaynor.

New York, March 11.—Magistrate Kernethan to-day refused to grant a summons to Ralph Pulitzer, of the Press Publishing Company, publishers of the New York World, against Mayor Gaynor in criminal libel proceedings. The magistrate agreed, however, to consider the question further at a conference to be held with Mr. Pulitzer and Howard Taylor, his counsel, Friday afternoon.

Mr. Pulitzer's desire to prosecute Mayor Gaynor for criminal libel followed a speech made by the Mayor at the annual dinner of the South Brooklyn Board of Trade, in which the Mayor said: "As I left my office to-night I saw on a great pile of newspapers by the bridge a great headline on one of them, 'An Injunction Stops the Secret Subway Deal.'"

"The proprietor of that paper—or rather, the two proprietors now, because their father died a year ago, I think—is prone not to tell the truth, to say the least. They have amassed a great fortune by lying."

Mr. Pulitzer took steps the following day to bring Mayor Gaynor to account. Mr. Pulitzer took the ground that it made no difference to him or his brothers what the Mayor said about them; but when the Mayor attacked the record of his father, Joseph Pulitzer, who was dead, he was bound to take steps to make the Mayor discontinue his attacks, and to make a public apology.

The Mayor has shown no indication to do either.

Jim Hall Is Dying.
Oshkosh, Wis., March 11.—Jim Hall, who just twenty years ago killed Boo Fitzgerald for a purse of $40,000 at New Orleans, La., and was knocked out in the fourth round, is dying of tuberculosis in a hotel at Neenah, Wis. Dickson Signs Contract.
Athens, Ga., March 11.—The Boston Nationals were out for the first practice since Saturday to-day. The field was heavy, but the Regulars and Youngsters played a four-inning game, in which the Youngsters bested the Old Guy 3 to 1.

Dickson, the Texas holdout pitcher, arrived to-day and signed up.

CONDITION IS IMPROVED

Physicians Announce That Levi P. Morton Passed Comfortable Day.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 11.—The condition of Levi P. Morton, former Vice-President and Governor, showed a slight improvement over yesterday, according to a joint bulletin issued by the physicians to-night. The bulletin said that the patient had passed a comfortable day, and that they regarded the patient's condition as improved since morning.

Mr. Morton has been suffering from hardening of the arteries, resulting from advanced age. Little hope of his recovery was entertained since he was taken ill.

JURY FAULTS TO AGREE.
Will Take Up Hutson Case Again This Morning.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., March 11.—After deliberating for five hours the jury in the Hutson case began its work this afternoon until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, when the members of the jury will again be locked up. So far they have failed to agree.

This afternoon court proceedings were temporarily held up. The Commonwealth is desirous of getting the minor cases from the docket in order to leave the three big cases for the last. The jury charged with the same crime as Hutson, was to be tried this afternoon, but the principal witness in the case was reported to the court as being in too great a state of intoxication to appear.

Chased Files in Rain.
Pasadena, Cal., March 11.—Rain during the night at Pasadena did not interfere with the scheduled practice of the White Sox second nine, but it did cause a brief hitting practice and then chased by balls for a time.

The pitchers had a session by themselves, and it was a case of "one and done." Hutson was especially pleased with the manner in which Edgy Cloutie and Doc White are rounding into form.

Waco Defeats Americans.
Waco, Tex., March 11.—The St. Louis American League team was defeated by the Waco Texas League team to-day, 6 to 4. Schwenk, Stone and Weidman, recruits, pitched for St. Louis. Weidman is said to be the tallest pitcher in either major league.

Athletics Start Home To-Day.
San Antonio, Tex., March 11.—The Philadelphia American League team to-day defeated the local Texas League club, 3 to 1. Houck, Plank and Harrell alternated as pitchers for Philadelphia. To-morrow the Philadelphia regulars will start homeward.

MINISTER'S WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE

Pending Trail of Action She Is Awarded $7 a Week and Custody of Child.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 11.—A clergyman and his wife are the latest applicants to the Supreme Court for relief from an unhappy marriage.

The minister is Rev. Carl Podin, pastor of the Glenmore Avenue Presbyterian Church. He filed to-day his defense to his wife's application for alimony and counsel for pending the trial of her separation action. Despite his plea, the pleas of his daughter and the recommendation of the Ladies Auxiliary of his church, and the resolution of the board of trustees, Justice Davis awarded the wife $7 a week and the custody of the little girl.

Podin and his wife were married in 1896, and have been separated since 1903. She is employed now in a department store. She is suing on the ground of nonsupport, claiming that she was compelled to leave him because of false charges against her conduct. He says she resorted to various devices to destroy the confidence of his parishioners in him, and finally "stole" their daughter and hid her in various schools under assumed names.

Here is a letter that Rev. Mr. Podin wrote his wife on the occasion of their daughter's fifth birthday, pleading with her to return with the little girl:

"My Little Beloved Emily:
"It is now nearly one month since the terrible power of darkness has mercilessly torn us from one another, and has caused wounds—ye, ghastly wounds—which neither time, nor distance, nor circumstances can heal, not only in our hearts, but in many others. But one suffers more or feels more deeply than our ever beautiful and innocent child, Rosetta, who even before she came into the world was consecrated to God by both of us.

"Her birthday falls on Monday, the 13th. Five years ago you gave her life and being, and how wonderfully God has answered our prayers by giving her a beautiful and healthy body, bright mind and a heart yearning after God. She expects several of her friends, but all of them will have little joy if you, as she expressed it in her prayers, 'her used-to-be mamma,' would not be present. Hence you are cordially invited and requested to intensify our joy by being present on this happy day. She cannot understand why Jesus does not bring you home, nor can I, nor can any one else."

In her reply Mrs. Podin said in part: "I shall never be your wife again, but the child's mother ever. As such I cannot claim the child, but I have more than mean and selfish in keeping her away from me; therefore my patience is exhausted, and if I cannot have my way by mutual agreement, I will be forced to seek by legal help to get her."

EMILY.
